- TUTORS NEEDED!!

Get paid or receive community service for your good grades!!

If you have received a B+ or A in an academic class, we can use your help.

Monday through Friday, for an hour after school, we have a Peer Tutoring program available in the library.

Those interested in earning money or community service hours for tutoring can help students in any class where you have been successful.

Science, math, and foreign language help is needed the most.

Applications for both those wanting to Tutor, as well as for students needing help are in the library.

- Hey Seniors, College is calling! Do you plan on attending the Jumpstart Senior Year Conference on September 9th? if so, you will need to preregister now. Please stop by the College & Career Center today to register online. This event is For 12th graders & parents. Join us on Saturday, September 9th, 8am—12pm at Escondido High School for everything you need to know to get ready for college. Topics include: CSU admissions, UC admissions—featuring UCSD, Palomar College, Private & Independent Colleges, SAT/ACT tips & tricks, Understanding Financial Aide, Get your FSA ID for FASFA, and Marketing Yourself for Scholarships.

Have a great day Eagles. Remember United We Soar!
